Lessons From A Little Girl

2 Kings 5

An Important Question:

- “Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?” – 2 Kings 1:3, 6, 16
- “Where is the Lord, the God of Elijah?” And when he also had struck the waters, they were divided here and there; and Elisha crossed over. – 2 Kings 2:14
- “I wish that my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then He would cure him of his leprosy.” – 2 Kings 5:3

2 Kings 5:1-3 – Now Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man with his master, and highly respected, because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man was also a valiant warrior, but he was a leper. Now the Arameans had gone out in bands and had taken captive a little girl from the land of Israel; and she waited on Naamaan's wife. She said to her mistress, "I wish that my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would cure him of his leprosy."

2 Kings 5:4 – Naaman went in and told his master, saying, "Thus and thus spoke the girl who is from the land of Israel. "Then the king of Aram said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." He departed and took with him ten talents of silver and six thousand shekels of gold and ten changes of clothes.
