

Matthew 22:37: 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' 38 "This is the great and foremost commandment. 39 "The second is like it, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 "On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets."

Jesus replied,
"The most important commandment is this: 'Listen, O Israel The Lord our God is the one and only Lord. And you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength. The second is equally important: Love your neighbor as yourself.' No other commandment is greater than these." (Mark 12:29-30)

So be very careful to love the LORD your God. (Joshua 23:11) Love the LORD your God, walk in all his ways, obey his commands, hold firmly to him, and serve him with all your heart and all your soul. (Joshua 22:5) I love you, LORD; you are my strength. (Psalms 18:1) I love your sanctuary, LORD, the place where your glorious presence dwells. (Psalms 26:8) May those who love your salvation repeatedly shout, The LORD is great! (Psalms 40:16) O God, you are my God; I earnestly search for you. My soul thirsts for you; my whole body longs for you in this parched and weary land where there is no water. I have seen you in your sanctuary and gazed upon your power and glory. Your unfailing love is better than life itself; how I praise you. (Psalms 63:1-3)

And now, O Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, (Deuteronomy 10:12) You must love the LORD your God & obey all his requirements, decrees, regulations, and commands. (Deuteronomy 11:1) Show love to the LORD your God by walking in his ways and holding tightly to him. (Deuteronomy 11:22) I will sing of your love and justice, LORD. I will praise you with songs. (Psalms 101:1) All who love me will do what I say. My Father will love them, and we will come and make our home with each of them. (John 14:23)

Dear friends, let us continue to love one another, for love comes from God. Anyone who loves is a child of God and knows God. But anyone who does not love does not know God, for God is love. God showed how much he loved us by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him. This is real love: that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins. Dear friends, since God loved us that much, we surely ought to love each other. (1 John 4:7-11)

Evangelism

The background is a textured, aged parchment or paper with a warm, yellowish-gold color palette. A prominent sunburst pattern radiates from the center, with rays extending towards the edges. On the right side, there is a silhouette of a tree with a dense, rounded canopy. The overall aesthetic is rustic and spiritual.

HOW OUR INTUITIONS
DECEIVE US

Christopher Chabris and Daniel Simons

Luke 19:1 He entered Jericho and was passing through. 2 And there was a man called by the name of Zaccheus; he was a chief tax collector and he was rich. 3 Zaccheus was trying to see who Jesus was, and was unable because of the crowd, for he was small in stature. 4 So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree in order to see Him, for He was about to pass through that way. 5 When Jesus came to the place, He looked up and said to him, "Zaccheus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house

6 And he hurried and came down and received Him gladly. 7 When they saw it, they all began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to be the guest of a man who is a sinner." 8 Zaccheus stopped and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, half of my possessions I will give to the poor, and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will give back four times as much." 9 And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he, too, is a son of Abraham. 10 "For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."
