“In ancient Greece and Rome, human life had very little value. The Spartans left weak children to die on the hillside. Infanticide was common, as it is today in many parts of the world...The greatest of classical thinkers, from Seneca to Cicero, saw nothing wrong with these practices. Christianity banned them, and Christianity introduced the moral horror we now feel when we hear about them.”

What's So Great About Christianity?

1 John 3:11-15 - 11 or this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; 12 not as Cain, who was of the evil one and slew his brother And for what reason did he slay him?

Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's were righteous. 13 Do not be surprised, brethren, if the world hates you.

14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren.

He who does not love abides in death.

15 Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer; and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.”
