After God's Own Heart: David and Saul

6 It happened as they were coming, when David returned from killing the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy and with musical instruments. 7 The women sang as they played, and said,

1 Samuel 18:6-9

“Saul has slain his thousands, and David his tens of thousands.” 8 Then Saul became very angry, for this saying displeased him; and he said, “They have ascribed to David ten thousands. Now what more can he have but the kingdom? 9 Saul looked at David with suspicion from that day on.

1 Samuel 18:6-9

Facing

Jealousy...

Who has my heart?

But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not be arrogant and so lie against the truth. This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, natural, demonic. For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil thing.
