

Looking at the Cross

John 19

A wooden cross silhouette is centered in the lower half of the image. The background is a dramatic sky with dark, heavy clouds and bright, ethereal light rays emanating from behind the cross, creating a halo effect. The overall color palette is dominated by dark blues, greys, and bright whites from the light rays.

John 20:30-31 – Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.
