“I know the psalm; she knows the Shepherd.”

- Charles Laughton

Psalm 23:1 The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want.
2 He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside quiet waters. 3 He restores my soul; He guides me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. 4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. 5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil; My cup overflows. 6 Surely goodness and loving-kindness will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

“I feel lost. I am not sure where to go in this life, and I don’t know where to turn for guidance. I feel overwhelmed by life, and I have an intense desire for more. I can’t rest; things never seem to be calm. Yet with all this activity, there is something missing in my soul. I am choosing my own path, but it has led me to some dark places. I am constantly filled with fear and dread about what could happen to me. I don’t have any comfort in my life, and I am constantly concerned about my enemies. I wish I knew what would happen. I long to have a place where I could feel like I truly belong.”

Deuteronomy 2:7 “For the Lord your God has blessed you in all that you have done; He has known your wanderings through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have not lacked a thing.”
