Two Ways:

A photograph of a dirt path leading through a dense forest. The path is illuminated by a bright, warm light source at the end of the path, creating a strong lens flare and a golden glow. The trees are dark and silhouetted against the light. The overall mood is hopeful and forward-looking.

A narrow path through a forest, with sunlight filtering through the trees, creating a warm, golden glow. The path is flanked by tall, dark trees, and the light creates a strong contrast between the bright path and the dark shadows of the forest.

“Narrow is the road that leads to the life of a violinist. Hour after hour, day after day, and week after week, for years, I lived with my violin.

There were so many things that I wanted to do that I had to leave undone; there were so many places I wanted to go that I had to miss if I was to master the violin. The road that I traveled was a narrow road and the way was hard.” – Fritz Kreisler

Two Prophets:

Two Prophets:

Discipleship
bears fruit.

Deuteronomy 18:22 – 22

"When a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing does not come about or come true, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

Acts 20:29-30 – 29 "I know that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; 30 and from among your own selves men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them.
