2 Peter 1:16-21

2 Peter 1:16-18

16 For we did not follow cleverly devised tales when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty. 17 For when He received honor and glory from God the Father, such an utterance as this was made to Him by the Majestic Glory, "This is My beloved Son with whom I am well-pleased" - 18 and we ourselves heard this utterance made from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain.

2 Peter 1:19-21

19 So we have the prophetic word made more sure, to which you do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts. 20 But know this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, 21 for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

How do we know Jesus will come again?

His Majesty

The background of the slide features a bright yellow sun rising over a dark horizon. The sun is positioned in the center, with its rays shining upwards and outwards, creating a dramatic and hopeful atmosphere. The sky is a gradient of yellow and orange, while the horizon is a solid black line.

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

- Psalm 119:105

Everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled. – Luke 24:44
