

How Great Is Our God

1. The splen-dor of a king, clothed in ma - jes-ty;

let all the earth re-joice, all the earth re-joice.

How Great Is Our God

He wraps him-self in light, and dark-ness tries to hide; it trem-bles at His voice, trem-bles at His voice.

God, and all will see, how great, how great is our God.

The background is a dark, textured brown with some lighter, mottled areas. On the left side, there is a silhouette of a person's head and shoulders, facing right. On the right side, there is a vertical, cylindrical object, possibly a candle or a pipe, with a textured surface. The overall mood is somber and contemplative.

Hope for the Hopeless

God brings hope to the hopeless.

2 Kings 3:16 He said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Make this valley full of trenches.' 17 "For thus says the LORD, 'You shall not see wind nor shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you shall drink, both you and your cattle and your beasts. 18 'This is but a slight thing in the sight of the LORD; He will also give the Moabites into your hand.

Miracle #1

2 Kings 4:2 Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil." 3 Then he said, "Go, borrow vessels at large for yourself from all your neighbors, even empty vessels; do not get a few. 4 "And you shall go in and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour out into all these vessels, and you shall set aside what is full."

Miracle #2

2 Kings 4:32 When Elisha came into the house, behold the lad was dead and laid on his bed. 33 So he entered and shut the door behind them both and prayed to the LORD. 34 And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth and his eyes on his eyes and his hands on his hands, and he stretched himself on him; and the flesh of the child became warm. 35 Then he returned and walked in the house once back and forth, and went up and stretched himself on him; and the lad sneezed seven times and the lad opened his eyes.

Miracle #3

2 Kings 4:39 Then one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine and gathered from it his lap full of wild gourds, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, for they did not know what they were.

40 So they poured it out for the men to eat. And as they were eating of the stew, they cried out and said, "O man of God, there is death in the pot." And they were unable to eat. 41 But he said, "Now bring meal." He threw it into the pot and said, "Pour it out for the people that they may eat." Then there was no harm in the pot.

Miracle #4

2 Kings 4:42 Now a man came from Baal-shalishah, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And he said, "Give them to the people that they may eat." 43 His attendant said, "What, will I set this before a hundred men?" But he said, "Give them to the people that they may eat, for thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and have some left over.' " 44 So he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.
