DREAM

Matthew 5:1-2, 7:28-29

A scenic landscape with rolling green hills and a cloudy sky. The text is centered over the image.

“For nearly 2,000 years the Christian world has been holding in its hand the complete answer to its restless and fruitless yearnings. Here rests the blueprint for successful human life with optimum mental health and contentment.”

- J.T. Fisher

A dramatic landscape with a cloudy sky and rolling hills. The sky is filled with large, white, billowing clouds, and the sun is visible in the upper left, creating a bright glow. The hills are covered in green vegetation and are seen from a high vantage point, looking down into a valley. The overall tone is serene and majestic.

“...the most sublime and benevolent code of morals which has ever been offered.”

- Thomas Jefferson

“I did not like the essay ‘Sermon on the Mount.’ It was hard to read and made me feel like I had to be perfect and no one is.”

A landscape of rolling hills under a dramatic, cloudy sky. The hills are covered in green grass and some trees. The sky is filled with dark, heavy clouds, suggesting an overcast or stormy day. The overall mood is somber and contemplative.

“The things asked in this sermon are absurd. To look at a woman is adultery? That is the most extreme, stupid, un-human statement that I have ever heard.”

“Many believe that this sermon should be taken literally. I believe, on the other hand, that, because the scriptures have been interpreted from so many different languages, we should use them as a guide – not law. Another fallback is that certain beatitudes are irrelevant to current lifestyles. Loving your enemies, for instance, is obviously not observed by the majority today.”

“In this essay the author explains the doctrines of an era in the past which cannot be brought into the future in the same context. This essay now cannot be taken the same way it was written. It can be used as a guideline for good manners.”

A dramatic landscape featuring a valley with a small town in the distance, surrounded by green hills and mountains. The sky is filled with large, white, fluffy clouds, with some darker clouds near the horizon. The overall tone is somewhat somber due to the blueish tint of the lower part of the image.
