The overall lighting is bright, typical of a classroom setting.

But be doers of the word, and not hearers only,
deceiving yourselves.
For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror.

For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks in the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being not a hearer who forgets but a doer who acts,

A photograph of a church sanctuary. The walls are a warm, reddish-brown color and are decorated with various religious symbols, including a cross, a sunburst, and a house-shaped symbol. The Ropes Course

Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil.
For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow.
But woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up!
Again, if two lie together, they keep warm, but how can one keep warm alone?
And though a man might prevail against one who is alone, two will withstand him—a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Phillippians
4:6

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything

by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving

Let your requests be made known to God.

The background of the image is a blurred office or meeting room. In the foreground, a long, light-colored wooden conference table is visible. The wall behind the table is densely covered with various items, including several large maps (one of the United States is prominent on the left), numerous sheets of paper, and what appears to be a framed photograph or poster in the center. The overall scene suggests a workspace of planning or research.

My life will end with a final destination.

The compass

Enter by the narrow gate.

For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many.

For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.
