

Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God.

WORK

Then What?

Self-centered work
does not last.

Ecclesiastes 2:18-19 –

I hated all my toil in which I toil under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who will come after me, and who knows whether he will be wise or a fool.

Ecclesiastes 2:18-19 –

I hated all my toil in which I toil under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who will come after me, and who knows whether he will be wise or a fool.

Ecclesiastes 2:20-21 –

So I turned about and gave my heart up to despair over all the toil of my labors under the sun, because sometimes a person who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave everything to be enjoyed by someone who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil.

Self-centered work
does not last.

Godly work endures.

Self-centered work
does not satisfy.

Ecclesiastes 4:7-8 –

Again, I saw vanity under the sun: one person who has no other, either son or brother, yet there is no end to all his toil, and his eyes are never satisfied with riches, so that he never asks, “For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?”

Ecclesiastes 4:7-8 –

Again, I saw vanity under the sun: one person who has no other, either son or brother, yet there is no end to all his toil, and his eyes are never satisfied with riches, so that he never asks, “For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?”

Ecclesiastes 5:12 –

Sweet is the sleep of a laborer, whether he eats little or much, but the full stomach of the rich will not let him sleep.

Ecclesiastes 6:7 –

All the toil of man is for his mouth, yet his appetite is not satisfied.

Self-centered work
does not satisfy.

Godly work fulfills.
