

Rebuilding the Temple

Haggai 1:1-7

Haggai 1:3-6 – Then the word of the LORD came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, "Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins? Now, therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider your ways.

Enemy #1 - Selfishness

The background is a dark green, textured surface. At the top, there is a decorative border featuring a repeating pattern of small, stylized tools (possibly hammers or nails) in a golden-yellow color. On the right side, there is a large, stylized illustration of a wrench in the same golden-yellow color. At the bottom, there is another decorative border with a repeating pattern of tools, including a hammer on the right and a wrench on the left, also in golden-yellow. The main text is centered and written in a white, serif font.

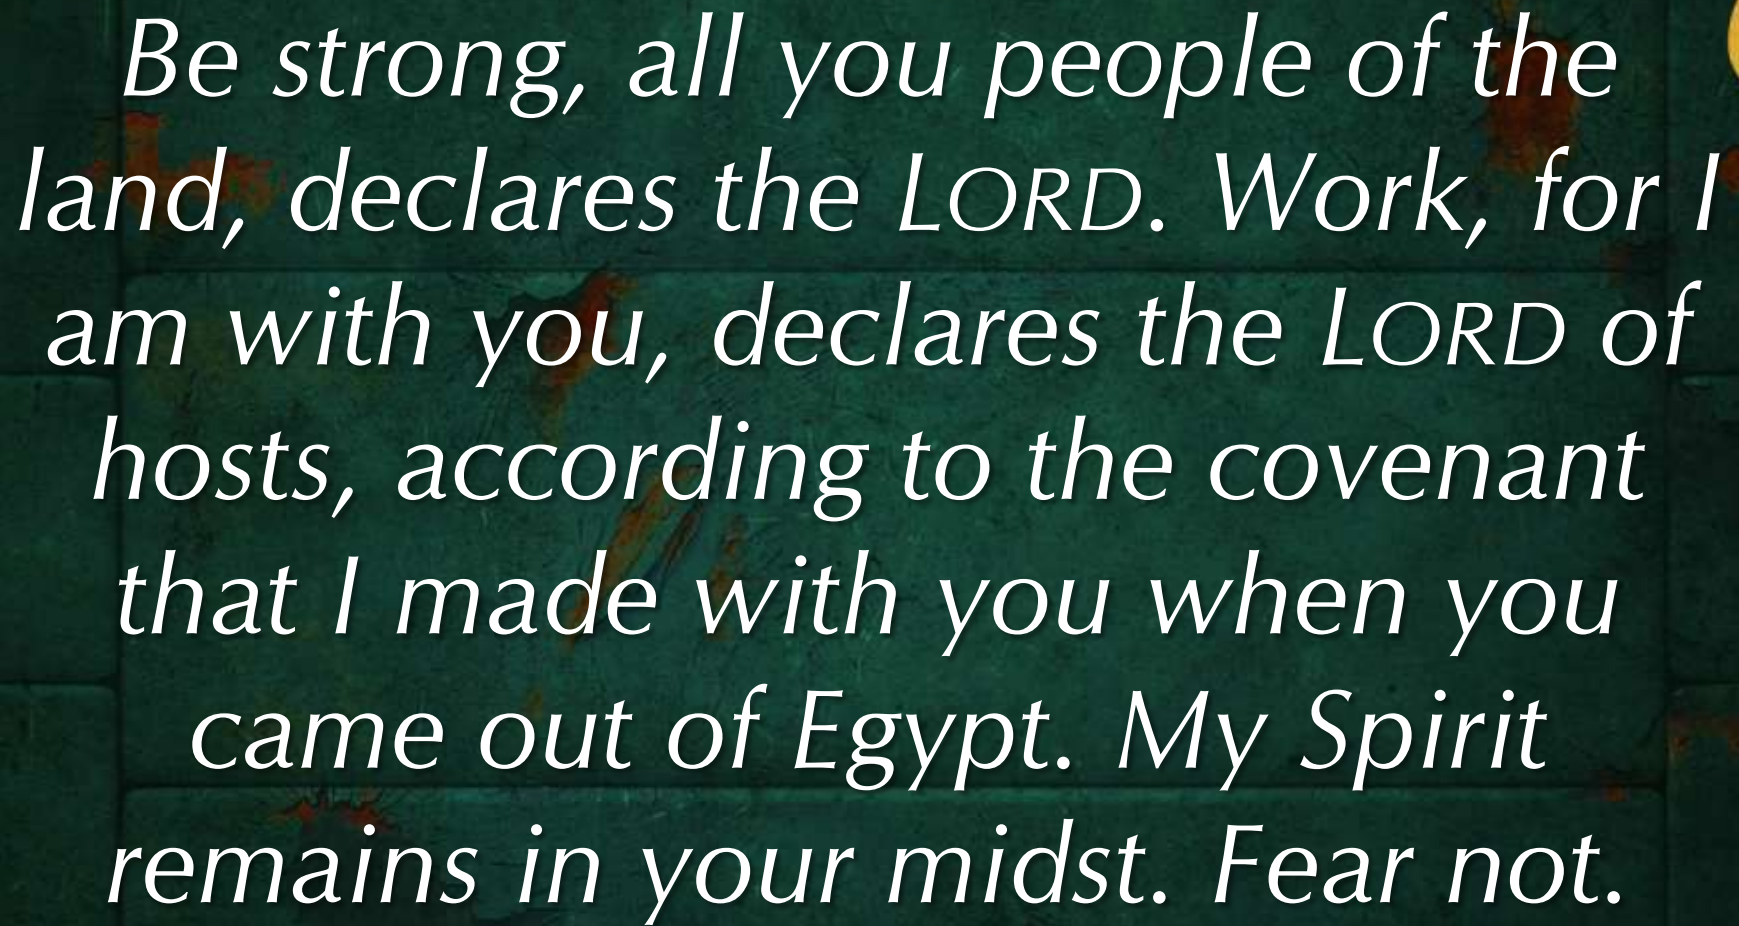

You have sown much, and harvested little. You eat, but you never have enough; you drink, but you never have your fill. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm. And he who earns wages does so to put them into a bag with holes.

Haggai 2:3-5 – 'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Is it not as nothing in your eyes? Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, declares the LORD. Be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest.'*

Enemy #2 - Nostalgia

Be strong, all you people of the land, declares the LORD. Work, for I am with you, declares the LORD of hosts, according to the covenant that I made with you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains in your midst. Fear not.
