

MAKING TIME

FOR FAMILY

A clock face is shown in the background, with a red line and a grey arrow. The red line starts from the bottom left and goes towards the top right, ending at the 1 o'clock position. A grey arrow points from the center towards the 1 o'clock position. The text is centered over the clock face.

WHY DOES IT SEEM SO HARD THESE DAYS
TO MAKE TIME FOR OUR FAMILIES?

A stylized clock face with a red line and a grey hand. The clock face is composed of grey dashed lines forming a circle. A red line starts from the bottom left and goes towards the top right, crossing the clock face. A grey hand is positioned at the top right, pointing towards the 12 o'clock position. The background is white.

BECAUSE WE HAVE FORGOTTEN
WHERE OUR TREASURE LIES

A close-up, slightly blurred view of a clock face. The clock has a white background with black tick marks and numbers. A prominent red line, likely a minute hand, points towards the 10 o'clock position. The text 'MATTHEW 6.19-21' is overlaid in the center of the image in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The background is softly out of focus, showing the curved path of the clock's hands and the grid of numbers.

MATTHEW 6.19-21

“There is no contentment in the American family anymore. We want to make more money so we can buy things we don't need to impress people we don't even like.”

DAVE RAMSEY

For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

MATTHEW 6.21

1. Plan to make one day a week to spend with family, even if it's Sunday.
2. Make sure you emphasize, enforce, and encourage a connection with God and church above all other activities
3. Pray with your family.
4. Listen and talk with your kids.
5. When you're home, be at home.
6. Make sure, above all, that you as parents place God and serving Him above all other things. Be the example that you want your kids to be. They WILL grow up to be like you.
