with us.*

Hebrews 2:5-9

“On which account God now says, that Noah found grace in his sight, when all the rest of mankind appearing ungrateful were about to receive punishment, in order that he might mingle saving mercy with judgment against sinners. As the psalmist has said somewhere, “My song shall be of mercy and judgment.”

Philo in On the Unchangeableness of God

And she is said not to have had a mother, having received the inheritance of relationship from her father only, and not from her mother, having no share in the female race; for someone has said somewhere, "And yet, in truth, she is my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my Mother."
