

Where We Find Salvation

One Word: Hope

A dark, weathered anchor is positioned on the right side of the image, resting on a wooden plank background. The anchor is made of metal and has a rope coiled around its shank. The background consists of vertical wooden planks with a natural, aged texture.

to Castaway to Captive*

Romans 8:18-21 – 18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us. 19 For the anxious longing of the creation waits eagerly for the revealing of the sons of God. 20 For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it, in hope 21 that the creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

Hope moves
from slavery
to freedom.

Romans 8:22-23 – 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now. 23 And not only this, but also we ourselves, having the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our body.

Hope moves
from groaning
to redemption.

Romans 8:24-25 – 24
For in hope we have been saved, but hope that is seen is not hope; for who hopes for what he already sees? 25 But if we hope for what we do not see, with perseverance we wait eagerly for it.

Hope moves
from seen to unseen.
