

Entertain

Us

Identity in Him #3

“Some skeptics will scoff at any insistence on moderation. For these skeptics, I have a few simple questions. Why is eating fun? Why are there colors? I’m still waiting for a good explanation that does not include the word God.”

- G. K. Chesterton

The image features a pair of red curtains on either side, framing a central black area. The curtains are pulled back, revealing the black background. The text is centered in the black area and is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The text is arranged in three lines: "Pleasure is a great", "blessing,", and "but a poor master." The overall composition is simple and dramatic, with the red curtains providing a strong contrast to the black background and white text.

Pleasure is a great blessing,
but a poor master.

*What we fill our mind
with will shape our desires.*

What we fill our hearts
with will shape our lives.

What we fill our days with will shape our futures.

The image features a pair of red curtains on the left and right sides, framing a central black area. The text is centered in the black area and is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The text reads: "Pleasure is a great blessing from the True Master." The word "Pleasure" is on the first line, "is a great" on the second, "blessing" on the third, "from the True" on the fourth, and "Master." on the fifth.

Pleasure is a great blessing
from the True Master.