“As iron sharpens
iron, so one man
sharpens another.”

- Proverbs 27:17

Proverbs 27:14-19

14 He who blesses his friend with a loud voice early in the morning, It will be reckoned a curse to him.

15 A constant dripping on a day of steady rain and a contentious woman are alike; 16 He who would restrain her restrains the wind, and grasps oil with his right hand.

17 Iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another. 18 He who tends the fig tree will eat its fruit, and he who cares for his master will be honored. 19 As in water face reflects face, so the heart of man reflects man.

Acts 2:42-47 –

42 They were continually devoting themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. 43 Everyone kept feeling a sense of awe; and many wonders and signs were taking place through the apostles. 44 And all those who had believed were together and had all things in common; 45 and they began selling their property and possessions and were sharing them with all, as anyone might have need. 46 Day by day continuing with one mind in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they were taking their meals together with gladness and sincerity of heart, 47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord was adding to their number day by day those who were being saved.

Galatians 6:1 –

Brethren, even if anyone is caught in any trespass, you who are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; each one looking to yourself, so that you too will not be tempted.

Hebrews 10:23-25 –

23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful; 24 and let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds, 25 not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more as you see the day drawing near.
