James 3:1 Let not many of you become teachers, my brethren, knowing that as such we will incur a stricter judgment. 2 For we all stumble in many ways. If anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body as well. 3 Now if we put the bits into the horses' mouths so that they will obey us, we direct their entire body as well. 4 Look at the ships also, though they are so great and are driven by strong winds, are still directed by a very small rudder wherever the inclination of the pilot desires. 5 So also the tongue is a small part of the body, and yet it boasts of great things. See how great a forest is set aflame by such a small fire! 6 And the tongue is a fire, the very world of iniquity; the tongue is set among our members as that which defiles the entire body, and sets on fire the course of our life, and is set on fire by hell. 7

For every species of beasts and birds, of reptiles and creatures of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by the human race. 8

But no one can tame the tongue; it is a restless evil and full of deadly poison. 9
With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in the likeness of God; 10 from the same mouth come both blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be this way. 11 Does a fountain send out from the same opening both fresh and bitter water? 12 Can a fig tree, my brethren, produce olives, or a vine produce figs? Nor can salt water produce fresh.

What Do My Words Cost Me?

13 I will be like the Spirit of truth, who will abide with you and be in you. He will testify of me to you, and you will testify of me to the world. He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. He will receive of mine and declare it to you. He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Do Not Grieve the Spirit of Truth
14 Do not grieve the Spirit of truth, whom you have received, so that he will take you away and you will not see him again. Do not grieve him, so that you will be taken away and he will not come to you again. Do not grieve him, so that you will be taken away and he will not come to you again.

1 What shall it profit a man, if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or shall he give up his kingdom to possess it? And shall he exchange his soul for it? No, he will not do it, though he is ready to give up everything he has for the life of his body. And what will he give in exchange for his soul?

2 For what will a man give up his soul to gain the whole world? And what will he give in exchange for his soul? No, he will not do it, though he is ready to give up everything he has for the life of his body. And what will he give in exchange for his soul?

James

14:13-15 If you take the royal standard or the military, promising oaths of allegiance for the forgiveness of sins, it is the whole of your life that is being bought. You are selling your souls for a price that is less than the value of your souls.
