

And what does the Lord
require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Micah 6:8

A person is silhouetted against a bright, orange sunset sky as they walk a tightrope stretched across a deep mountain valley. The scene is framed by dark, jagged rock formations in the foreground. The overall mood is one of balance and challenge.

MICAH 6.8

1 Hear now what the LORD is saying,
"Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. 2 "Listen, you mountains, to the indictment of the LORD, and you enduring foundations of the earth, because the LORD has a case against His people; even with Israel He will dispute.

Micah 6

3 "My people, what have I done to you, and how have I wearied you? Answer Me. 4

"Indeed, I brought you up from the land of Egypt and ransomed you from the house of slavery, and I sent before you Moses, Aaron and Miriam. 5 "My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab counseled and what Balaam son of Beor answered him, and from Shittim to Gilgal, so that you might know the righteous acts of the LORD."

Micah 6

6 With what shall I come to the LORD and bow myself before the God on high?
Shall I come to Him with burnt offerings, with yearling calves? 7 Does the LORD take delight in thousands of rams, in ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I present my firstborn for my rebellious acts, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

Micah 6

8 He has told you, O man,
what is good; And what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

THINKING ABOUT OURSELVES THE RIGHT WAY

A person is walking a tightrope across a deep mountain valley. The scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of a sunset or sunrise, with the sun low on the horizon. The person is silhouetted against the bright sky, with their arms outstretched for balance. The foreground shows the jagged, rocky edges of the cliffs from which the rope is stretched. The background features a range of mountains under a sky filled with soft, orange-hued clouds.
