That's Why We Sing

Will our children
have faith?

Will our children
have faith?

Will our faith
have children?

A person will worship something, have no doubt about that...that which dominates our imaginations and our thoughts will determine our lives, and our character. Therefore, it behooves us to be careful about what we worship, for what we are worshipping, we are becoming.

– Ralph Waldo Emerson

Worship – Giving God
what He wants.

Our entire lives are a sacrifice to God.

Romans 12:1 Therefore I urge you, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. 2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.

Our entire lives are a sacrifice to God.

Colossians 3:23 Whatever you do, do your work heartily, as for the Lord rather than for men, 24 knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. It is the Lord Christ whom you serve.

Our entire lives are a sacrifice to God.

“For some years, we have noticed a tendency among many people to drift away from the good old songs that were loved and cherished by our fathers and mothers, and to adopt the modern tunes. As a result, there has been a great decline, and in our humble judgment, the progress has been downward and backward. The singing is not as sweet and soul-stirring as it was in our younger days.”

Worship is not defined by my preferences.

Worship is not defined by my emotions.

Our worship assemblies offer praise to God.

Worship is not defined by my preferences.

Worship is not defined by my emotions.

Worship is not about our numbers.

Our worship assemblies offer praise to God.
