Resurrection: Jesus Defeats Death

Luke 24:1 - 12

We should know proof of the resurrection.

“Certainly, it is a mysterious event, but it is not presented as a vision, a dream, a theological inference, or an ineffable event in the hearts of those who loved him. It is told as another remarkable event within the narrative, as the bodily resurrection of the man Jesus, leaving the tomb empty, conversing with his disciples, showing them his hands and his feet, eating fish with them. This is the historical event that alone renders the development of the church historically explicable. This is the historical event in the light of which all our history must be interpreted anew.”

– Richard Hayes,

Moral Vision of the New Testament
