

Preaching Like Peter

Starting the Conversation #1

Acts 2:7 They were amazed and astonished, saying, “Why, are not all these who are speaking Galileans? 8

And how is it that we each hear them in our own language to which we were born? 9 Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and residents of

Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya around Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11
Cretans and Arabs—we hear them in our own tongues speaking of the mighty deeds of God.” 12 And they all continued in amazement and great perplexity, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” 13

But others were mocking and saying,
“They are full of sweet wine.”

Peter was willing to confront an uncomfortable topic.

Am I willing to confront an uncomfortable topic?

Peter was able to understand the Old Testament.

Do I understand the Old Testament?

*Peter was able to explain
Jesus' mission.*

*Am I able to explain
Jesus' mission?*

Peter continued to teach and encourage them.

Am I committed to continual teaching and encouragement?

A close-up photograph of a stone sculpture. The sculpture depicts a man with a thick, wavy beard and hair styled in a complex braid. He is shown in profile, resting his head on a rectangular stone block. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the textures of the stone and the man's features. The background is dark and out of focus.
