LIGHT
for my PATH

A dirt road winds through a dense forest of tall, thin trees. Sunlight filters through the canopy, creating a bright glow at the end of the road and casting long shadows. The overall atmosphere is serene and hopeful.

Strength and Shield

a shield.*

The Lord is my strength and my shield; My heart trusts in Him, and I am helped; therefore my heart exults, and with my song I shall thank Him.

“It reminds me that I can get strength from God when I am weak and that he shields me from danger, evil, temptations, etc which is a huge help to me as a weak human; this knowledge of what he does for me is a continual blessing in my heart.”

assurance.*

I have been young and now I am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his descendants begging bread.

- Psalm 37:25

“I have several ‘favorite’ scriptures that may vary with my circumstances, but this one has been a comfort through all my life.”

We have a Shepherd.

1 The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside quiet waters. 3 He restores my soul; He guides me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

- Psalm 23:1-3

“In thinking about the shepherd-sheep relationship, the sheep are totally dependent on the shepherd. Verse 1 says the Lord is “my” shepherd. My Lord and shepherd has known me before I was born. (Psalm 139:16). As a shepherd knows his sheep and they know him,

“my” shepherd knows me and I know Him. “My” shepherd provides for me, he protects me, he prospers me, and I have His promise of eternity with Him. Throughout life in good times and in trial, I know He is near.”
