Numbers 13 and 14

Numbers 14

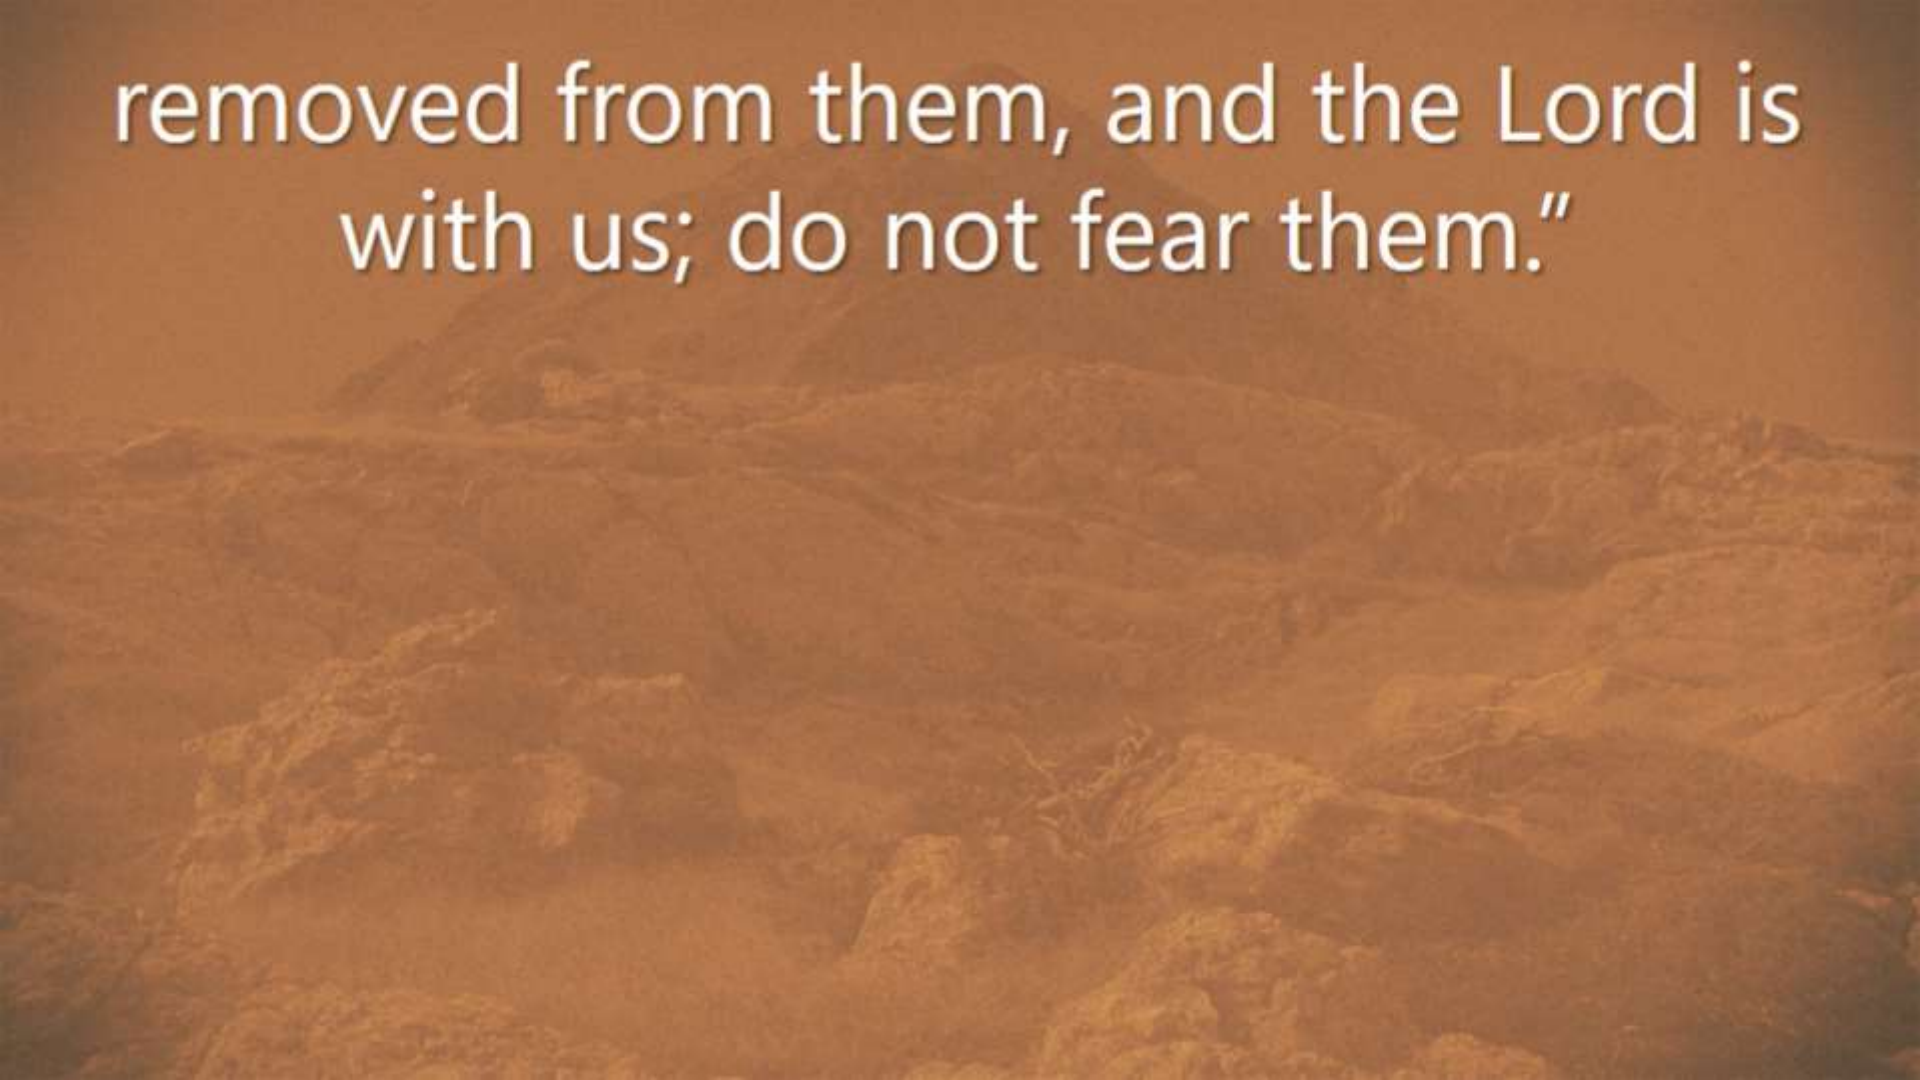

1 Then all the congregation lifted up their voices and cried, and the people wept that night. 2 All the sons of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron; and the whole congregation said to them, "Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would that we had died in this wilderness! 3 Why is the Lord bringing us into this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become plunder; would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?" 4 So they said to one another, "Let us appoint a leader and return to Egypt." 5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces in the presence of all the assembly of the congregation of the sons of Israel. 6 Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes; 7 and they spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, "The land which we passed through to spy out is an exceedingly good land. 8 If the Lord is pleased with us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us—a land which flows with milk and honey. 9 Only do not rebel against the Lord; and do not fear the people of the land, for they will be our prey. Their protection has been removed from them, and the Lord is with us; do not fear them."

The background of the image is a vast, hazy landscape of rolling hills and mountains. The entire scene is bathed in a warm, orange-brown light, creating a sense of mist or a hazy atmosphere. The terrain is rugged, with various ridges and valleys visible, though softened by the distance and the color palette. The overall mood is serene and somewhat somber.

A photograph of a mountain range with a prominent peak, overlaid with a quote. The image has a warm, orange-brown color palette. The text is centered and reads:

When we focus on
ourselves,
we feed our fears.

When we focus on
ourselves,
we feed our fears.

When we focus on God,
we feed our faith.

The background of the image is a hazy, orange-tinted landscape. In the center, a large, dark mountain peak rises against the sky. The foreground is filled with rocky, uneven terrain, possibly a desert or a volcanic landscape. The overall atmosphere is misty and monochromatic, with shades of brown, tan, and orange.

What am I feeding?

What are we feeding?

When we focus on
ourselves,
we feed our fears.

When we focus on God,
we feed our faith.
