Isaiah 6

Isaiah
6:1-13

1 In the year of King Uzziah's death I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, lofty and exalted, with the train of His robe filling the temple. 2

Seraphim stood above Him, each having six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. 3 And one called out to this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away and your sin is forgiven.” 8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?” Then I said, “Here am I. Send me!” 9 He said, “Go, and tell this people: ‘Keep on listening, but do not perceive; keep on 3:9 – “Woe to them! For they have brought evil on themselves.”

5:8 – “Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field, until there is no more room, so that you have to live alone in the midst of the land.”

5:11 – “Woe to those who rise early in the morning that they may pursue strong drink, who stay up late in the evening that wine may inflame them.”

5:18 – “Woe to those who drag iniquity with the cords of falsehood...

5:20 – “Woe to those who call evil good and good evil.”

5:21 – “Woe to those who are wise in their own eye...”

5:22 – “Woe to those who are heroes in drinking wine.”
