...the end of 1891, Gauguin returned to Paris where he came into touch with avant-garde writers like Jean Morisot, Charles Morice, Stéphane Mallarmé, Paul Mar-celin and Octave Mirbeau and was welcomed by them as the leading representative of Symbolism in painting. He became an habitual of the cafes where the Symbolist writers congregated; he attended several of Mallarmé's "Tuesday's", Octave Mirbeau wrote the preface to the catalogue of the sale of 30 of his pictures at the Hôtel Drouot,

"I NAP, THEREFORE I AM."

Exodus 20:12 –

“Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be prolonged in the land which the LORD your God gives you.”

Not everything that is heavy is a hardship.

Honor anchors our family and the family of God.

Exodus 20:12 –

the land which
the LORD your God gives
you.”
