

An Update from Andrew...

Our year is already off to a great start, and many of our ministries are getting into gear. On Monday morning, our Senior Adults enjoyed their yearly kick off breakfast. Jack Malone works hard and does an outstanding job with this ministry, and Kevin Thompson shared an inspiring message about the church family working together. There were over 80 who gathered in Graymere Hall for this breakfast, but there is always room for more. If you have been thinking about getting involved with this group, don't wait any longer!

Tonight, you will notice many of our church family are not in the auditorium, because they will be working with ITC in the YAC and the Senior Center. We have more than 50 students who are part of ITC, and as the school year has resumed, this ministry has resumed as well. Speaking of Wednesday nights, we are also resuming our rotation of different men from our congregation offering the invitation. I am in the process of making that schedule, so please let me know if you are interested in participating.

Another ministry resuming soon is the Columbia School of Biblical Studies. These Thursday night classes will begin meeting again on February 6, 2020. David Morris will be teaching on Hebrews at 6:00 p.m. The 7:00 p.m. class will be focused on three different subjects: The Restoration Movement by John Vaughan, Background of Hymns by Graham McKay, and The Minor Prophets by Monte Tatom. These are in-depth classes designed for everyone, and we usually have members from several area congregations present. These classes will meet for 13 weeks, and they follow Maury County School schedules in the case of any bad weather; if school is not meeting, neither will these classes.

One of our goals this year is to use our social media channels more effectively. If you are on Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram, be sure to look us up and start following. We have been posting some questions early in the week to help us start thinking about the sermon, as well as a brief video later in the week designed to share as an invitation to worship. It only takes a minute or two to share, retweet, or repost one of these invitations. I hope we will all do that.

Lastly, don't forget about our annual singing at Graymere on February 7. Ken Wiles will be coordinating this night, and there will be sign up sheets in Bible classes for those who can bring food. This is always a great night with many guests, and we want everyone to feel welcome. Let's keep learning and growing together!
