

An Update from Jonathan...

Some of my fondest memories of mission work took place in Peru, and include Juan Abanto and Abraham Alata. These two men grew up in the same congregation, and are best friends. In 2005, I remember the three of us knocking doors on a campaign in Peru, and I told them: "Someday I would like for the three of us to be able to work together to plant churches in Peru." Fifteen years later, that dream is becoming a reality. Graymere knows Juan well, as we have partnered with him the past few years to plant the church in Pachacamac, and he has visited us on two occasions. Beginning in January, Abraham will be partnering with Juan to build up the church in Pachacamac.

As a young boy, Abraham spent two years in Panama, where his parents, Miguel and Fidelia, were students at the Bible School of the Americas. Abraham graduated from the Lima, Peru campus, which was only in existence for about 4 years. Until now, Abraham has not had the opportunity to labor full-time in the church. As a single father to two boys (Isaac-10, Larry-8), Abraham has worked in telecommunications, and assisted with the church in Chorrillos, where his father works.

Abraham possesses some qualities that I believe will make him a tremendous asset to Pachacamac. Fluent in English, and additional languages, makes communication a great strength for him. His love for scripture, constant smile and great sense of humor make him a very productive evangelist. Juan & Abraham work well together, and have proven this since November 2018, when they began operating and instructing in the Bear valley Bible Institute's extension program in Peru. This school is a "Saturday school", which allows men to train and study for 8 hours each Saturday, without interrupting their secular work during the week. I am thankful to see a dream become reality in this opportunity for Graymere, Juan & Abraham to partner together for God's glory.

Thank You

“We would like to thank our Graymere family for the support given to us during Don’s stay at Morning Pointe, and his recent passing. The gratitude we have for the prayers, cards, visits and food are more than words can express. We appreciate the memorial gift to the Tuesday Crew Endowment Fund at Columbia Academy. Don had a great love for this and his friends at Graymere. We are grateful for your thoughtfulness.”

The Don Dugger Family
