An Update from Andrew...

Friday night was another successful area-wide singing, and I am grateful to Ken and Debbie Wiles, Bobby Bishop, Valerie Wilson, and others who worked hard to make it happen. One of the neat things about these singings is they provide a chance for some of our young men to lead a song. For some of them, this will be their first experience leading singing, and when a supportive group of adults encourages them, it can make a powerful impact. You can find some pictures of the night on our Facebook group page.

One additional blessing for us on Sunday was having Jerry and Fern Hill with us in our worship assembly. It was inspiring to attend the reception on Sunday afternoon and hear Fern talk about this new book she has written, Gifts from Glory. In it, she collects stories of answered prayers from her life, and I can't think of a better subject for a book. I had the privilege of taking a picture of Jerry, Fern, and the "teenagers" from their time at Graymere. Not only did Jerry preach here, but he and Fern also worked with the young people. Reunions like that are special, especially among brothers and sisters in Christ. We also got to listen to a challenging lesson from Chad Landman, and I appreciate his willingness to preach.

I am looking forward to Sunday the 23rd, when Noel Whitlock will be speaking to us on Sunday. We will have a combined adult class after worship service, followed by a potluck meal. After the meal, we will have an afternoon devotional in the Fellowship Hall before setting up for the Preaching Workshop the next day. On Monday, Noel will be joined by Doug Burleson, Jeremy Barrier, and Ralph Gilmore. We have 42 already signed up, but there is room for more. Since we do not host CBI in the way we used to, we will have several of our CBI alumni staying on Monday night. On Tuesday, Kirk Brothers will lead two morning sessions with them. It will be a blessing for everyone, and I hope we can have more participants than ever this year.

A few have asked about some of the handouts from our recent Wednesday night auditorium class, "Walking Where Jesus Walked." If you missed a week or are part of another class and would like some of the handouts, you can pick them up in the foyer. Let's keep learning and growing together!
