An Update from Andrew...

Sunday was an encouraging day of worship and fellowship. Noel Whitlock shared messages that were both uplifting and challenging. It was neat to see how many Graymere members with connections to Harding had worshipped with the College Church of Christ and heard Noel speak while in Searcy. It is a reminder that when it comes to the church, it is truly a small world. Our potluck meal, as always, was enjoyable. I am always encouraged to see how many Graymere members come together to prepare food, set up and take down all the tables and chairs, and clean up after a day like that one. Thank you for all your work.

We had an outstanding preaching workshop on Monday, with 90 participants present on Monday and several staying at Graymere Hall for our second day. Jeremy Barrier, Doug Burleson, Ralph Gilmore, and Noel Whitlock each led us through careful, extensive study of a specific aspect of 1 Corinthians on Monday, and Kirk Brothers taught two excellent messages on specific passages in 1 Corinthians on Tuesday. Participants attended from four different states, representing at least 40 different congregations, and we had several ministry students attend as well. It is my prayer that this event was a blessing to every congregation represented, and I am grateful to this church family for making it a reality. As usual, we had our all-star breakfast team providing excellent food each morning: Peggy Rector, Phyllis Coble, Kenny and Frances Compton, and Jack Malone. Lunches were coordinated by Chad Landman and Racine Wilder helped set up and serve lunch on Monday and Tuesday. Chad also went the extra mile to set up our workshop website, provide refreshments, and even drive a shuttle bus back and forth from the Fellowship Hall to Graymere Hall in the rain. We could not have done this without their hard work.

Although it may seem early to think about this summer, there are some important dates to remember. Registration is open for Maury Christian Camp (Week 1: May 31-June 5, Week 2: June 7-12) and Horizons (July 5-10). This year, our Future Ministers Camp will take place on May 24-27. We will be using a different format than years past, starting camp on Sunday afternoon and concluding Wednesday evening. Our campers will give their lessons in our Bible classes on that Wednesday night. This format will give some space between FMC and Maury Christian Camp, since we have so many who are involved in both. Brochures are out in the foyer, and we will be putting the information on our website soon. Let's keep learning and growing together!
