An Update from Andrew...

This week, each of the ministers has been to Freed-Hardeman University for at least one day for the Freed-Hardeman University Lectures. Several Graymere members have also attended, either with the group on Monday or on their own. I am grateful so many desire to grow spiritually at events like this, and also to encourage us!

Our annual area-wide singing is coming up on Friday night. I hope you are planning to be there. We will be serving food afterward, and we will need some help setting up tables and chairs in the Fellowship Hall tonight after class. Once class has concluded, if you can make your way to the Fellowship Hall, your help will be appreciated.

The Golden Age Banquet will take place on February 17th. Sign up sheets are in the foyer, and if you are part of the senior group and have not yet attended this banquet, you do not want to miss it. Our young people invest time and effort in making this meal fun, and they have some surprises in store. We often talk about the importance of intergenerational connections in our church family, and this is great opportunity for that kind of fellowship.

I am looking forward to Sunday, February 23rd, when Noel Whitlock will be speaking to us. Noel preaches for the College Church of Christ in Searcy, Arkansas. He spoke for our preaching workshop a couple of years ago and did an outstanding job. He is one of our speakers again this year, and he will be speaking at both services, and he will be teaching a combined adult Bible class in the auditorium. As we have done in previous years, we will have a potluck meal after Bible class on Sunday morning. This will be a prime opportunity to invite friends for worship and lunch.

On February 24th, we will be hosting our Preaching Workshop at Graymere. Our focus will be Preaching 1 Corinthians, and our speakers for the day are: Doug Burleson, Noel Whitlock, Jeremy Barrier, and Ralph Gilmore. We have added something new this year. Since we do not host the week-long Columbia Bible Institute as we have in years past, we have added the option for an extra day of our workshop. Some of our workshop participants will spend the night on Monday night, and stay to hear two lessons by Kirk Brothers on Tuesday. I am glad our congregation supports and equips ministers, and this promises to be a great workshop. Let's keep learning and growing together!
